

Join Latrobe City's peak business advocacy organisation

Make your voice heard and help to build a strong and prosperous future for Latrobe City by joining the Latrobe City Business Chamber, a group of business and community leaders committed to sharing ideas and working together to develop strategic initiatives for our region. If you are committed to the continuous development and growth of Gippsland as a thriving economic region, join the region's most influential collective voice now.

Members are unified by;

Shared Vision - Our outlook for Latrobe City is for visionary leadership; talented and creative people; a dynamic and environmentally sustainable economy; and engaged and connected communities.

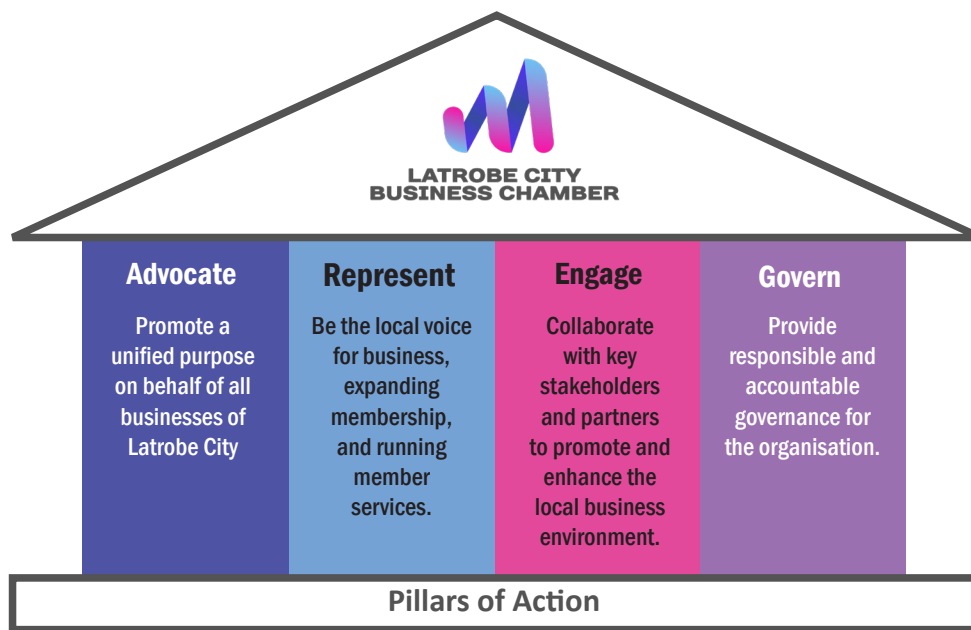

Thought Leadership - Our outlook for leadership is to engage, discuss and collaborate with captains of industry, global social-change entrepreneurs, policy makers, and government ministers. We wish to host at least four Thought Leadership events per calendar year.

Innovation by Change - Our vision for change is to advocate for our industries and communities to achieve Latrobe City's priorities; be the voice our governments engage with, listen to and respect when developing policies and priorities; and to ensure decision-makers recognise and act upon our regional priorities.

Partner Relationships;
